NOVEMBER 2024

They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old: Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.

At the going down of the sun and in the morning, we will remember them.

November is here! And with it, we set aside a day to remember our Veterans. The ultimate sacrifice that so many have made. The horrors that so many still live with.

Please take a moment and watch this short video:

We pray for our Veterans. For their families.
